COMMISSION

The Change Minds Partnership (Restoration Trust with Norfolk Record Office) wishes to commission a Business Planner to develop a Business Plan for national roll out of the Change Minds programme. This plan is one of the core outputs that Scaling Up Change Minds has committed to producing as part of our funding agreement with the National Lottery Heritage Fund

The Restoration Trust initiates and runs projects that connect people who live with mental health issues with heritage, including archaeology, ancient landscapes, historic places and archives.

The Norfolk Record Office is the accredited local authority archive service for Norfolk, holding one of the largest collections of historical records in the country.

Change Minds

Change Minds is a unique heritage, creative, wellbeing project engaging those living with mental health problems. It is run by a partnership between the Restoration Trust and Norfolk Record Office.

Participants use historical archives to research and develop creative responses to the lives of asylum patients in the past, developing a deeper understanding of their own experience along the way.

Each Change Minds project is based on partnership between an archive service and a local mental health provider, supported by the expertise of the Change Minds Hub; thereby ensuring that this richly rewarding experience is open to those who will benefit the most.

Scaling Up Change Minds is funded by the National Lottery Heritage Fund and NoRAH to support archives and mental health providers by scaling up the Change Minds model. This will increase access for people who are underserved by heritage, as the well-evidenced programme engages people with mental health challenges with historical mental health records to improve their wellbeing. Cross-sectoral collaboration and co-production pools resources, connecting volunteers, experts-by-experience, professionals and researchers. See www.changeminds.org.uk
